

Emmanuel Uniting Church Camp

Friday 25 April – Sunday 27 April

Glengarry Education Centre, Mt
Tarampa

Things to bring checklist:

A desire to connect, engage and grow!

Check the BOM weather for forecasts – would expect it to be comparable to Ipswich, less (by about 2 degrees) at night. Pack clothing accordingly. The hall/ shed we are using does not have air-conditioning, so don't overdress!

Bible, notebook / journal, pen.

Food

- We are hopeful that you will join us in the catered option, if not, think about
 - o 2 dinners, 2 breakfasts, 2 lunches.
 - o 2 x morning / afternoon tea and supper – cakes, slices, biscuits to share.
 - o Snacks and nibbles (like fruit) as you desire.
- Drinking water is available onsite, however it is tank water, which will taste like tank water! (so BYO if you want to!) or other drinks. Note, this is an alcohol free activity.
- Marshmallows, for the campfire night!

Bedding – pillow, sheets, blankets, or sleeping bag etc. (Cabins have bed frames / mattresses but not bedding).

Toiletries – don't forget your toothbrush!

Footwear – walking shoes, something for in the shower (if you want)

Games – indoor board game / cards... A ball for outdoor games / tennis equipment / basketball etc, as you desire

Bike and helmet if want to ride around the premises (particularly children)

Insect repellent / sunscreen / hat / outdoor friendly clothing for those who want to get active.

An entertainment item to share for the campfire night (Saturday night).

Musical instruments if you want to join in times of worship (or Saturday night entertainment option!)
